Conkling Sails for Europe.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Senator Conkling to-day sailed for Europe in the steamship Mosel. A company of distinguished Republicans accompanied the Senator down the bay. Passing steamers screamed a good by and dipped [illegible].

Conkling's Farewell.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Senator Conkling, in the course of his reply to the congratulations [illegible] he left America, said:

[illegible] the most pleasant among the incidents [illegible] in my journey abroad will be to [illegible] English people for England's reception of Gen. Grant. I see you as Americans will bear [illegible] no occurrence in modern times has done [illegible] to warm the breasts of the people of America as [illegible] warm, generous and spontaneous tribute paid by England to the hero and patriot who enjoys so warm a place in the hearts, confidence and affections of the American people. (Applause.) It is consoling to know that the great English speaking people of the British Isles [illegible] the American people have not forgotten the principles, measures and man that in [illegible] and in war secured that nationality which they will pardon us if we regard as the [illegible] on earth. The Senator said he [illegible] to see something abroad of the power, development and progress of other lands, and to be [illegible] in early autumn with renewed health and strength and to take such part as might belong to [illegible] affairs that were likely to demand some attention from them all. (Applause.)

The Spanish Mission.

[illegible], June 16.—James Russel Lowell has accepted the Spanish mission, and will shortly [illegible] for Spain.

Money and Stocks.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Silver bars, 123½ greenbacks, 1¼ gold; silver coin, ½ discount; gold [illegible]; money, 1½@2; governments, strong; [illegible] strong; Western Union, 60½; Quicksilver [illegible]; Pacific Mail, 19½; Mariposa, 2; Wells Fargo, 87; New York Central, 92¾; Erie 6; [illegible] Union Pacific, 66; bonds, 107½; Central Pacific bonds, 110.

Stock Rumors.

NEW YORK, June 16.—It is rumored here to-day that the Chicago fast trains will be taken off and the fare raised to $12, but the report is unconfirmed. It is probably a stock [illegible]. Some members of the stock exchange [illegible] a plan for dealing in government [illegible] as consols are dealt in at London.

Counting the Bullion.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Dr. Linderman, director of the mint, will leave here for San Francisco on Monday to be present at and superintend the counting of bullion at the annual settlement of the San Francisco mint which takes place at the close of the present fiscal year.

Matrimonial.

The [illegible] says, editorially, the Ex-Queen of Spain is said, appealed to the Porte to use its influence to prevent her son, King Alfonso marrying a non-Catholic princess.

The Novelist and the Poet.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The Herald's cable [illegible] Victor Hugo writes to Tennyson thus: ALFRED TENNYSON—My Eminent and Dear Brother: I read with emotion your superb verses. It is the reflex of glory which you cast on me. Why should I not love England which produces such as you. The England of Wilberforce, England of Milton and Newton, England of Shakespeare. France and England are to me a single people as truth and liberty are a single light. I believe in the unity of humanity as I believe in the unity of the divine. I love all people and all men, and admire your noble verses."

Dismissals.

NEW YORK, June 16.—While Collector Arthur was attending the farewell proceedings in honor of Senator Conkling to-day his private secretary sent for Deputy Collectors E. C. Manning, J. J. Osborne, H. T. Warren and H. G. Williams, and told them their services were no longer required. Each had a salary of $2,500 a year. Williams graduated with Ex-President Grant and fought under him in Mexico, and was appointed by him in [illegible]. Manning had been in office five years, Osborne three years and Warren six years as deputy collectors. Their divisions have been consolidated.

Fires.

[illegible], Vt., June 17.—Martin's flouring mill burned this morning; loss on building [illegible] estimated at $25,000; insurance $10,000.

Insurance Company Wound Up.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The report of the referee recommending the winding up of the American Popular Life Insurance Company was approved by Judge Westbrook this morning, and Edward G. Lawrence appointed receiver.

Chicago Grand Jury.

CHICAGO, June 16.—The special grand jury adjourned to-day after bringing in a large number of indictments, but they refuse to give the names of the indicted until they are made public on Monday.

Homicide and Suicide.

BLOOMINGTON, Ills., June 16.—Fred. Hendrix, a wealthy farmer, fifty years old, living near [illegible], shot and killed his wife last evening in a drunken rage, and then fled. His dead body was found this morning a quarter of a mile from the place with a bullet hole in his head, and his hand grasping the revolver with which he killed his wife.

Bank Suspension.

BLOOMINGTON, June 16.—The Home Bank, heretofore considered the strongest in this county, suspended to-day. Members claim the embarrassment is only temporary and is only due to the exaggerated rumors that have been circulated against the members of the company. Liabilities are about $100,000.

Lexington Races.

LEXINGTON, June 16.—The trotting races commence Tuesday and continue four days. They promise to be the most successful ever seen in Kentucky. The purses have all been filled and fast time is expected.

A Rule of the Service.

[illegible], June 16.—John C. Adam, postmaster of this city, is president of the common council; he announces his resignation of the latter position owing to an intimation from the postoffice department that the administration does not wish its officials to hold municipal positions.

The Molly Maguires.

The board of pardons, after a session lasting from 3 o'clock Saturday evening until 1:30 A. M. Sunday, refused to commute the death sentence to life imprisonment in the cases of the convicted Molly Maguires, sentenced to be hanged Thursday next.

The finest building stone in the State is obtained from quarries near Oakland.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Badeau to be Removed.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The World's Washington special says: The consul to London will be recalled next month and his successor named from the South. It is said it was the intention to make the change earlier, but it was not deemed just the thing to remove one of Grant's personal appointments while Grant himself was meeting with official receptions in England which Badeau attended in company with the ex-President.

The Administration on the Silver Question.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The Times' Washington special reports that the President and Sherman had a conference last night on the silver question, and that the report that there are some differences between them, is unfounded. There has been no special conference between the President and Secretary with reference to this question. The President is disposed to regard with favor the remonetization of silver, but as yet he has not reached definite conclusion. He is studying the question with care and availing himself of every opportunity to inform himself upon it.

Outstanding Fractional Currency.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The following was published to-day by the Treasury Department:

To A. M. WYMAN, Treasurer of the United States—Sir: It appears from the report of the Treasurer of the U. S. Comptroller of Currency and chief of bureau of engraving and printing, dated 9th inst., that the amount of fractional currency lost and destroyed, and which therefore cannot be presented for redemption, is $8,083,513 50, the Attorney General, in his opinion of this date, a copy herewith, holds that in ascertaining the amount of fractional currency outstanding within the meaning of the third section of the joint resolution of July 22, 1876, there should be deducted from the amount of such currency issued and not redeemed the amount lost and destroyed. The amount issued and not redeemed, May 31, 1877, was $21,206,930 33, and deducting amount lost and destroyed as above stated will leave $13,126,416 83, the amount of fractional currency which according to the opinion of the Attorney General was then outstanding; you are therefore directed to issue according to law from time to time an amount of silver coin which, including the amount issued since the date of the resumption act, January 14, 1875, and the amount of fractional currency outstanding as thus ascertained, will equal fifty million dollars. Very respectfully, JOHN SHERMAN.

The Attorney General, in reply to an inquiry of the Secretary of the Treasury as to whether he is authorized to continue the issue of silver coin in place of fractional currency heretofore issued, and shown to have been lost or destroyed, is of the opinion that the amount of fractional currency outstanding is to be determined not merely by records of the Department, showing how much has been issued, but also how much of that issue has been lost or destroyed, so that it cannot be presented for redemption; and upon being satisfied as to the amount of currency thus lost or destroyed, the Secretary is authorized to issue an equal amount of subsidiary silver coin to replace it, provided, that both fractional currency and silver in existence does not exceed the $50,000,000 contemplated by Congress for change.

Cats, Tomato Vines and Suicide.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Robt. Richer, long time clerk in quartermaster general's office, quarreled with his wife about her cat and kittens breaking down his flowers, and remarked: "If you don't keep those kittens out of the garden I will kill them." His wife answered, "If you do I will tear up your tomato vines." Richer began to beat the cat and his wife to tear up the vines. Richer then placed a revolver to his forehead and exclaimed, "You see me" shot himself and instantly expired. He was appointed from Missouri.

Kept his Money.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The Star says it is not true that Corcoran has given $20,000 or any amount to be distributed among discharged government employees.

Attack on Schurz.

CHICAGO, June 16.—The Tribune's Washington special says: Gail Hamilton to-day attacks Secretary Schurz, reiterating that Geo. Schneider, of Chicago, loaned him money to start a newspaper, and that this secured Schurz' influence for his (Schneider's) appointment to the Swiss mission. Secretary Schurz to-night denies the story as an unmitigated falsehood and slander.

Who can Buy Bonds.

The Register of the Treasury yesterday applied to the Treasurer to subscribe in his individual behalf for one thousand bonds of the new four per cent. loan, but it was ruled that this officer could not purchase a bond under a section of the revised statutes which provides that no person appointed to the office of Secretary of the Treasury, First Comptroller, First Auditor, Register or Treasurer, should be concerned in the purchase or disposal of any public securities of the United States. Another section makes it a misdemeanor for any clerk to carry on any trade or business in the funds of the United States. The act in question is in the old statute of 1789, in the original organization of the Treasury Department, and has heretofore either been disregarded or misconstrued into prosecution of business in State or United States bonds.

MEXICO.

Surrendered to Lerdo.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The collector of customs at El Paso informs the Secretary of the capitulation of El Paso, Mexico, to partisans of Lerdo Tajada under the immediate command of P. Z. Mathor, colonel of the Second Regiment, Mexican infantry, who is acting under the authority and instructions of Gen. Escabedo. The taking of the city was accomplished between 1 and 6 A. M. The principal city officials were taken prisoners. Among them, Grefe Polyco, mayor; Rafael Karios, collector of customs, and fifteen of his subordinates. The uprising is general throughout Chihuahua. It is authoritatively stated to-night that a large body of men will assemble at this point for the ostensible purpose of entering Mexico to develop the mines, etc., but the real object is altogether different. G. M. Meando was made mayor of the city by Col. Mahor, who publicly declared he would drive every American out of the place. If an attempt is made to carry out this threat, trouble will ensue. The absence of troops is greatly deplored.

A Mexican Fight on American Soil.

NEW ORLEANS, June 16.—The Galveston News' Fort Clark special says on Monday last a detachment of Mexican government troops crossed the Rio Grande to this side, at a point twenty miles from here, in order to avoid a conflict with a large body of revolutionary troops fast closing on them. On the same night a revolutionary body crossed the river and attacked the government soldiers, killing several, wounding many, and then returned to the Mexican side. The United States military authorities at this point made captives of the Mexicans for violation of the neutrality law in crossing to the American side with arms and having a battle thereon. They were brought to the post under guard of U. S. troops, forty in number, including 1 colonel, 3 lieutenant colonels, 5 captains. They were released yesterday on parole. Recruiting is going on on this side for revolutionary parties.

THE TERRITORIES.

Smallpox appears to be spreading among Indians at Puget Sound.

Capt. A. J. Boland, formerly of The Dalles, lives in Upper Weiser valley, Idaho.

Tacoma Herald: The Pacific Mail Steamship Company has ordered that the steamship City of Panama shall hereafter make New Tacoma her initial point on Puget Sound instead of Seattle.

Nine thousand dollars for their railroad has been subscribed by citizens of Olympia. They hold but two railroad meetings a week now, and husbands can't stay out every night without inventing a new dodge.

In Jackson county the caterpillars have stripped much of the ash timber of green leaves.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

Turkey will Occupy Servian Forts.

LONDON, June 15.—Specials from Pesth state that the Porte, fearing Servia will conclude a convention permitting the passage of Russian troops, has decided to occupy the principal positions in Servia.

English Interests in the East.

In the House of Lords last night the Marquis of Salisbury flatly denied that there had been any change in the relations between England and Afghanistan or that English troops had made preparations for crossing the Indus, and pronounced other alarming reports equally false.

Ownership of Constantinople.

It is reported that Prince Gortschakoff in his reply to England disavowing any wish on the part of Russia to take possession of Constantinople, declares that the city ought to belong to none of the European powers.

Occupation of Duga Pass

The Times' correspondent at Montenegrin headquarters at Ostrok telegraphs the following under date of Thursday, which indicates that the Montenegrins are not yet completely driven from Duga Pass: The Turks have moved up to Modera within Duga Pass and within reach of cannon shot from the Montenegrin lines at Presjeka, but up to this time no indications of an attack have been given; It is expected, however, that a movement will be made to-morrow.

Destroying as they go.

The Turkish column, advancing through Wassojevitch district, makes slow progress, and has not yet reached Kolaschin. It destroys all villages within reach, but has thus far not entered the mountain country. It is supposed this column intends moving through Drobnitk to unite with the army now in Duga Pass. Another rumor says that after the relief of Nicsic and capture of Danilograd the bulk of the Turkish forces will be withdrawn to operate on the Russian right wing when it crosses the Danube. The greatest confidence is felt here in the general result of the campaign.

Crossing of the Danube.

LONDON, June 16.—The Russians have definitely determined to make the passage of the Danube between Piketo and Turner Magurielt. Preparations indicate early operations.

A dispatch dated Shumla, June 12th, says the attempt to cross is hourly expected. There is great excitement at Rutschuk and Shumla. There is every appearance of desperate fighting shortly. Lennox starts for the front to-morrow.

The same correspondent telegraphs under date of Thursday that Rutschuk is almost empty. Communication is liable to be cut off and newspaper correspondents are warned to leave at a moment's notice. The Danube is rapidly subsiding.

Preparing to Cross the Danube.

LONDON, June 16.—Private letters from the Danube state that the Russians are extremely busy constructing bridges and repairing roads so as to secure the utmost facility of movement when the decisive moment arrives. A field telegraph now connects the headquarters of all Russian corps with those of Grand Duke Nicholas.

The staffs of the various Russian corps are located at Bucharest, Kalarash, Simnitza, Turnumargaaell, Russeveder, Alexandria, Rini and Giurgevo. Rafts which the Russians have been constructing below Galatz are quite ready for bridging purposes, and large numbers of them are being towed up to Ibrail. This quite supports the general opinion that the crossing will take place at Ghiucete below Ibrail.

Russia's Sick List.

Sisters of Mercy, a large number of whom recently arrived, are constantly visiting the camps and various hospitals from which it is thought there are many sick, though the Russians do their utmost to prevent the obtaining of information on the subject.

Turko-Grecian Difficulties.

A Vienna correspondent telegraphs that advices from Constantinople show that great irritation is felt about the attitude of Titus of Greece. Pressing orders have been sent to the army to pacify Montenegro so that troops may be sent to Thessdar and Ephesus as soon as possible.

Turkish Barbarity.

A Bucharest correspondent sends the following minute of foreign affairs just communicated to me, the contents of the document emanating from the commander-in-chief of the Ottoman army, that every Roumanian soldier taken prisoner shall be put to death.

The News Suppressed.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The Herald's London special says: No correspondents are now allowed to leave the Russian headquarters. Those who are fortunate enough to be at the scene of fighting cannot use the telegraph to send their news forward. Grand Duke Nicholas has shut off every avenue by which intelligence of the forthcoming great movement of his army can get abroad. Railroads, post roads, telegraph lines, and even mail bags are under his censorship.

Anglo-Russian Relations.

The relations between Russia and England are of the most critical kind short of actual war. The two countries stand on the very verge of hostilities, and the slightest incident might at any time precipitate a conflict. Never since the Crimean war has the position been of such peculiar difficulty, though the relative strength and influence of Russia and of England has changed materially since that period.

English Eastern Interests.

LONDON, June 16.—Count Schouvaloff is to assure England that the route to India by way of the Suez Canal and the Persian Gulf is free; that treaties will be observed, and that the question of the Bosporus and Dardanelles will be settled at the end of the war by a European congress. Beyond these points no engagement has been undertaken.

The Roumanian Circular.

Referring to the last Roumanian circular in which the Roumanian government requests the powers above all to promise that Roumania shall not be forcibly constrained to renew her former relations with the Porte, it is said the powers will abide by their previous decision merely to take cognizance or notification by the Roumanian government of Roumanian independence without giving an opinion on it.

More Turkish Troops.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 16.—A fresh corps of 20,000 cavalry is being formed.

Turkish Officials to be Tried.

A court has been constituted for the trial of Nourie Pasha for embezzling 60,000 Turkish pounds, also for trial of Kemal Bey, arrested after Midhat Pasha's fall.

Watching the Christians.

In Syria it is stated that the Turkish authorities are watching Christian party leaders at Saragea, some of whom favor an English protectorate for Crete to become self governing. Arrests are expected.

Turkish Treachery.

The Tribune's London special says a correspondent in Constantinople writes that it is by no means certain that treachery has not much to do with the bad performance of the Turkish army in Asia, and those who have been at Erzeroum and Ardahan can only account for the insufficient fortification of these places by the theory that the coveted Russian gold is at work. They assert that many Turkish field officers have been heavily bribed. Things are even worse at Constantinople and it is said both Mahmoud Dahmoud and Redlif have been bought by Muscovites, and they will get large sums when a peace advantageous to Russia is concluded.

Russian Vessels in Turkish Waters.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Anitarchi Bey, Turkish minister, furnishes the decision of the Sublime Porte concerning Russian vessels which are found in waters of the Ottoman empire and concerning commerce of neutrals. A delay of five full days from the receipt of notification of the decision is allowed to all Russian vessels in Turkish ports, on the 12th of April, 1877, to quit the Ottoman waters. There will be delivered to them by the customs authorities safe conduct to the nearest Russian or neutral ports without giving them liberty however to pass from the Black Sea to the Mediterranean or vice versa. The Ottoman government will observe the rules of maritime law formulated by the treaty of Paris for the purpose of confiscating contraband of war. The Ottoman government will exercise the right of search on the high seas and Ottoman waters as regards neutral vessels destined from Russian ports or for any point on the coast occupied by the enemy or in case of suspicion, even if destined for neutral or Ottoman ports.

Cross and Crescent.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The Turkish minister communicates to the Associated Press a dispatch of which the following is a translation:

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 13.

Minister of Foreign Affairs to the Minister of Turkey at Washington: In consequence of the demand of the imperial government for substitution on our ambulance service of the Red Cross doubts have been raised as to our intention of respecting the convention of Geneva. To remove any doubts or misunderstanding in this respect the imperial government declares that in conformity with said convention, to which it adheres in principle, the Red Cross will continue to be religiously respected by the Ottoman armies under all circumstances; that formal instructions have been given to this effect, and that the Society of Aid for the wounded represented by the Red Crescent is in reality but an eastern branch of the Society of the Red Cross.

Neutrals.

LONDON, June 16.—Portugal has proclaimed her neutrality in the Russo-Turkish war. Germany will not issue a special proclamation of neutrality.

The Czar's Movements.

LONDON, June 16.—The Czar received Prince Milan at Ploiest. The Prince then returned to Bucharest.

The Czar has summoned Grand Duke Alexis to the headquarters of the army.

The Bey of Tunis Apologizes.

The Bey of Tunis has sent a letter to the Sultan apologizing for his inability to send the military contingent but promises to furnish money.

The Turks in Asia.

Intelligence received at Constantinople represents that the position of the Turkish army in Asia has improved, and that the Turks are preparing to assume the offensive.

The Siege of Kars.

The Russians suffered heavy losses before Kars. Artillery engagements between the besiegers and garrison continue.

The News that is Not Suppressed.

LONDON, June 17.—As regards the European seat of war the principal point worthy of remark has been the extraordinary stringency of the precautions taken by the Russians to prevent anything transpiring relative to their operations. Although war correspondents in Roumania number 220, not one has been able to give any information which would assist the formation of an opinion as to where the Russians intend to cross the Danube. This secrecy, taken in conjunction with the issue of decrees for a new loan and large addition to the army, is interpreted by some, seemingly with good reasons, as a sign that Russia no longer hesitates, and important events may shortly be expected as soon as the Danube, which is falling, is in condition to permit operations. Under these circumstances opinions relative to the locality of the advance must be formed from indications observable from the southern bank of the Danube. These observations seem to indicate somewhat near Nikopolis as the spot where the most serious effort will be made. Russians are making a concentration of troops at the mouth of the rivers Bode and Aluta, across which they have thrown bridges. There is scarcely a doubt that the troops concentrated between these two rivers form the operating army. It seems as though the Russians would make an attempt to cross at this part of the river whilst energetically engaging Rustchuk with heavy artillery. This latter conclusion is subverted by the arrival of a good quantity of heavy artillery, especially mortars at Giurgevo, and the fact that the Russians have occupied the Island of the Stokan, opposite the town, and are establishing batteries there, despite the Turkish fire. The Turks also think the passage will be attempted in force between Nickopolis and Sistoval, and have considerably reinforced the camps and garrisons at those places.

Russian Movements in Asia Minor.

In Asia the principal feature this week has been the partial withdrawal of the Russian right wing and closer investment of Kars and Batoum. The total Russian forces available for active operations in Asia Minor is about 140,000. Of these, 10,000 are around Kars, 30,000 between Kars and Batoum and 30,000 between Kars and the line of Bayazid and Toprak Kaleh, thus leaving about 40,000 for the center against Mukhtar Pasha's 40,000 in a strong position. These figures show that the Russians have no men to spare if they intend to keep the country they have so far occupied. The Russians are doing their work thoroughly and are systematically taking the administration over the country as they advance. Thus, the former sandjak of Scharangel is now completely incorporated with Russia a Russian civil governor. It seems, in obedience to this plan of consolidating their conquests and making all sure behind them, the Russians will make no attack in the direction of Erzeroum, until their center and left wing are quite free and prepared to co-operate therein.

In connection with the foregoing, the Moscow Gazette significantly remarks:

When we have secured the freedom of the Sclavs and the question of material compensation arises the incorporation of Armenia with Russia will probable be decided, as much on Armenian as Russian interests.

Both combatants have been reinforced during the week, the Russian left wing having received reinforcements, which are supposed to have traversed Persian territory in order to reach their destination.

Excitement in Servia.

There is great excitement in South Servia in consequence of operations of the Turks against the Montenegrins. Loud demands are made there for Servia to support the Montenegrins who, unless they receive speedy assistance, seem to have little chance of being able to long withstand the converging Turkish columns whose object is to drive the Montenegrins south and westward, and prevent them in the coming struggle from joining hands with the Servians and thus cutting off Bosnia and Herzegovina from the rest of the Empire. The feeling in Servia against the Prince of Montenegro being left to be crushed, is so strong that it is believed Prince Milan cannot safely resist it. It is also thought incredible that Russia should allow the Montenegrins to be abandoned, although reports as to the probable action of Servia are very conflicting.

The above fairly represents reasons why Prince Milan's visit to Ploiesti is regarded as of great importance as it will probably be decisive of the neutrality or co-operation of Servia.

From Constantinople strong additional confirmation is received that Ex-Sultan Murad has, in a great measure, recovered. As those discontented with the present regime favor his restoration, his recovery considerably complicates the internal situation.

Reported Defeat of the Turks.

A despatch from Ragusa states that on the frontier of Montenegro the Turks were totally defeated by General Petrovitch in an engagement before Daniograd.

Reported Defeat of Montenegrins.

Mehemet Ali telegraphs from Kolachin, announcing the total defeat of the Montenegrins in the neighboring forests, the latter losing upwards of two hundred killed. The Ottoman troops returned to Kolachin.

Mukhtar's Command.

Mukhtar Pasha is to retain his command,

A dispatch from Erzeroum on the 14th says Mukhtar Pasha is at Sewin; has received a reinforcement of twenty-four battalions and two batteries. He intends sending succor to Kars from along the whole line. The Turkish right wing, which is at Delibaba, has been ordered to march to Toprak Kaleh. Of the Turkish left wing six battalions are between Isenek and Olti, and eight are concentrated at Olti. There is also a Turkish battalion at Kopreckoy, one at Hassan Kale, and five at Devenbyyn.

The Egyptian Contingent.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 17.—The Egyptian contingent has arrived.

Nicsic Revictualed Again.

LONDON, June 17.—The Standard's Vienna correspondent reports that Nicsic was only revictualed after tremendous carnage. Exact losses not yet known.

General War Notes.

A Vienna dispatch says that Dalmatian papers state that preparations are being made to encamp 10,000 men near the mouth of Narenta.

NEW YORK, June 16.—There is no confirmation of the dispatch that the Russians have captured Toprak Kaleh.

LONDON, June 15.—Several special dispatches in London papers this morning seem to show there will shortly be some movement on the Danube.

A Vienna dispatch says it is announced that the headquarters of officers of the Russian army will, after to-morrow be transferred to Alexandria, near Giurgevo.

A Ploiesti dispatch states that it is supposed that operations will soon commence, as everything is prepared but the Danube falls very slowly. There have been many departures from this place, but the destination of those who leave is kept profoundly secret.

BUCHAREST, June 16.—Prince Milan arrived yesterday.

The Senate voted the ministerial bill for the immediate issue of $6,000,000 treasury notes.

The railway between Dredea and Ploiesti is interrupted.

LONDON, June 16.—Baron Kraut, Hessian nobleman arrested as a Turkish spy some days ago at Ploiesti, has not been shot.

A special from Pesth says Hungarian papers state that an order has been issued by the government that Hungarian subjects liable to military service are not to be granted passports for going abroad.

A correspondent of the Times at Vienna telegraphs the following: Ministerial changes in Roumania which are thought to be impending are due to a difference with Russia. Russians are annoyed by constant complaints of the present ministers concerning infractions of the convention.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

French Crisis.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The Herald's special regarding the crisis at Versailles, says: The accommodations of the chamber are very limited, and persons were admitted only by special tickets. The struggle to obtain places was something unprecedented. Every possible influence was resorted to to procure admission.

French Dissensions.

PARIS, June 16.—Sections of the left last evening adopted a resolution to be brought forward in to-day's sitting of the Chamber of Deputies. Raphael, it is stated, strongly condemns the policy of the cabinet. All deputies leave early for Versailles to confer prior to the opening of the sitting.

The responsible editor of the Marseilles has again been summoned to answer a charge of violating press laws.

The French Chambers.

PARIS, June 16.—In the Senate to-day Duc De Broglie, president of the Council, presented a message from President MacMahon asking the dissolution of the Chamber. After debate it was voted to refer to a commission.

In the Chamber of Deputies De Fourtin, minister of the interior, read a message from President MacMahon, demanding that the Assembly dissolve. Grevy moved an interpellation against the ministry, proposing the passage of a vote of want of confidence. An exciting discussion is in progress. Gambetta will reply to the ministry.

VERSAILLES, June 16.—On reassembling of the Chamber of Deputies to-day De Fourtou, Minister of the Interior, received a declaration announcing President McMahon had sent a message to the Senate informing that body of his intention to dissolve the Chamber by virtue of powers conferred upon him by article 5 of the constitution, and demanding the concurrence of the Senate.

Exciting Scenes in the French Assembly.

LONDON, June 17.—Special dispatches from Paris agree that Saturday's sitting of the chamber of deputies was one of the most violent ever witnessed. The Times correspondent says it extended over five hours and a half. During that time there was one prolonged roar. At one time, when Gambetta said that the power was in suspicious hands, the minister of public works sprang with a threatening air towards the tribune, and the members of the Right and Left dashed forward. Ushers had to separate the hostile armies. It really seemed as if there would be a hand to hand fight. All instinctively waited for the reports of revolvers.

MacMahon's Message.

The following is the text of MacMahon's message to the Senate:

Clause 5 of the constitution invests the President of the Republic with the right of dissolving the Chamber of Deputies, with the concurrence of the Senate. This grave measure appears to me to be necessary at the present moment. I have now to ask you to give assent to it. On May 16th I had to make known to the country divergencies in the Chamber. I then stated that no ministry could maintain itself in that Chamber. With seeking an alliance with, and submitting to conditions of the radical party, the government reduced to such a necessity, is no longer master of its functions. It must serve the designs of those whose support it accepts and prepare the way for their accession to power. To this I would no longer lend myself. When such discord prevails between the public powers, dissolution is the means prescribed by the constitution for putting an end to it. I should have preferred to postpone dissolution to allow time for voting the Budget, but the month for which the Chamber was prorogued has elapsed without calming men's minds. Three hundred Deputies have issued a manifesto which with letters and speeches have been circulated in all directions; some of the Deputies, sheltering themselves under parliamentary immunity used expressions which made necessary rigorous measures against journals publishing them. Such agitation could not continue without causing profound disturbance. There is therefore no cause for surprise that I summon the deputies before the country to which they have already addressed themselves. I confine myself to asking the chamber to pass some pressing laws which the patriotism of all parties will assuredly not allow to be called into question. I shall address myself confidently to the nation. France, like myself, wishes to preserve her institutions intact. She does not wish to see her institutions distorted by radicalism. She does not wish in 1880 to find everything prepared for disorganization of the moral and material forces of the country. France, warned against a misunderstanding, will do justice to my intentions and will choose deputies who will promise to support me. You will perceive the necessity to deliberate promptly upon this important resolution.

Discussion of the Message.

After the reading of the President's message the Senate referred the question of dissolution to a bureau and then adjourned till Monday.

VERSAILLES, June 16.—In the Chamber of Deputies, Berthmont, moderate Republican, moved the Left's interpellation. He made a speech vehemently attacking the government.

Mitchell, Bonapartist, interrupted Berthmont and was formally censured by the Chamber.

De Fourtou, Minister of the Interior, replied to Berthmont. He said the country would decide who was right. The act of May 16th saved society and the constitution. The present ministers belonged to the constituent assembly and aided in the liberation of the territory. The Left thereupon protested and gave Thiers an ovation. De Fourtou concluded as follows: "The government had no thought of favoring a return to the past from which the country was forever separated."

Gambetta replied. During his speech he used the expression—"The Marshal's successor, an old illustrious man," meaning Thiers. This led to a lively scene. Gambetta urged prompt dissolution. Otherwise he said the government would be open to a charge of debasing the electors. It was because the chamber had been wise and prudent that President McMahon had been induced to enter into his adventures. What will be the result? A majority will go to the country numbering 363 and return four hundred strong. The country knows that the triumph of the coalesced would lead to civil war. Gambetta at the close of his speech fainted, and the House adjourned till Monday.

Fireworks.

LONDON, June 16.—Gen. Grant and family visited Crystal Palace yesterday. A grand concert and display of fireworks were the principal features of the entertainment. A likeness of General Grant and a representation of the capitol at Washington were exhibited in fireworks.

Bank of England.

LONDON, June 16.—Amount of bullion gone into the Bank of England on balance to-day £29,000.

Bonds.

LONDON, June 16.—Four and one-half per cent bonds, 104⅜; '67s 106¼; new fives 107¼; Erie preferred 15½.

Struck by Lightning.

A letter from Posen states that during divine service lightning fell upon the Roman Catholic Church of Wrischen and struck eighty persons, six were killed at once and the rest much injured.

Sent to Prison.

BERLIN, June 16.—Herr Bebel, Social Democrat and member of the Reichstag, has been sentenced to three months' imprisonment.

Appeals Taken.

PARIS, June 16.—Bonnet Dueveder and those connected with him, for utterances in their speeches at St. Denis, have appealed against the sentences imposed upon them.

The German Elections.

BERLIN, June 16.—Encouraged by their recent success in elections for the Reichstag, socialists are making strenuous efforts to carry the election for the 5th district, Berlin, Monday. Their chances are good.

The Last Pilgrims.

ROME, June 16.—The Pope has received the last of the great pilgrimages.

CANADA.

Sitting Bull Brags a Little.

CHICAGO, June 16.—A special from Winnepeg, Manitoba, says dispatches from Fort Walsh, say: Sitting Bull, with 350 lodges is settling between there and Wood Mountain. He claims to have won many victories over the U. S. troops, of which the public knew nothing, and exhibits numerous trophies, including arms, wagons, etc., belonging to Custer's party. He holds that violations of Federal treaties, by the U. S. authorities warranted the rebellion.

A Bismarck special says: Rev. Abbott Martin returned yesterday from a conference with Sitting Bull, held at the latter's camp in the British Possessions, May 28th. Martin was accompanied by six Sioux Indians and an interpreter. He was joined while there by Major Walsh and other Canadian officers from Fort Walsh, some 60 miles away. Sitting Bull was courteous, very hospitable and attentive. He told the same old story of his wrongs in an eloquent and fiery speech. The conclusion reached was that Sitting Bull would not return to the United States, but would remain in the British Possessions. He could not bear the idea of surrendering his possessions, ponies, arms, etc., and besides feared for his personal safety. He appeared thoroughly subdued. The Indians lost all their lodges and many arms and supplies while crossing the river this spring, and are in bad condition to continue the war. There are 320 lodges, or about 1,000 warriors. The British officers sympathized with them and assured them of protection during good behavior. Father Martin thinks the band better off as it is, and recommends that they be encouraged to remain, and believes the Indian war is over.

The Indian Troubles at Oka.

QUEBEC, June 16.—A squad of provincial police force left here by train last night in response to a requisition for aid from Oka.

MONTREAL, June 16.—The commissioner of police at Oka says they are not there to make arrests, but to protect life and property, and will only require a guarantee from the Indians to keep the peace. The Indians have decided to appeal direct to the Dominion government, and demand an inquiry into their cause of grievance. The Caughnequa Indians are taking a lively interest in the trouble of their brethren at Oka district. Royal Orange Lodge, through its properly authorized officers, call upon Orangemen not to join any body of men who propose to proceed to Oka, however much they may sympathize with the oppressed Indians, but to await the decision of the courts.

OKA VIA HUDSON, Quebec, June 16.—The Provincial police arrived at noon and proceeded to the Catholic schoolhouse where their commander has been closeted with the priests. The Indians fled to the woods.

MONTREAL, June 16.—Not an Indian is to be seen about Oka. They are said to be secreted in the village, armed and determined to resist any attempt to arrest them. Rev. Mr. Parent, Protestant missionary at Oka, is endeavoring to pacify the Indians. The police has been reinforced and an attempt probably will be made to make more arrests to-day. The cause of burning the church remains a mystery. All sorts of rumors are afloat.

NOVA SCOTIA.

The Fishing Commission.

HALIFAX, June 16.—The fishing commission provided for by the treaty of Washington met yesterday with closed doors. The case of Great Britain was filed. Americans were given several days to put in an answer. The court sits for a short time to-day, when it adjourns for several weeks. It is understood the claim for Canadian fisheries embraced in the case filed by Great Britain amounts to $20,000,000. The programme agreed upon is that the British case be replied to by the United States on the 7th of July. The British counter case will be presented on the 25th of July, when the convention reopens. On the 28th evidence will be received in support of the case of Great Britain, and witnesses on that side be heard until the 10th of September, and then the Americans will examine their witnesses until the 23d of October. From the 24th to the 6th November the British will bring forward rebutting evidence, when six days will be allowed each side to deliver argument, which will close the period allotted for the reception of evidence on the 9th of November; then evidence and arguments will be placed in the hands of the commissioners for judgment, which will probably extend the sittings of the commission to the 15th of December, the period limited by the treaty.

FROM PRINEVILLE.

An occasional correspondent writing from this point, under date of the 10th inst., sends the following:

Times lively and business increasing.

Preparations are being made for a grand ball on the 4th of July.

Charles and H. Hadley, of Eugene City, passed here last week on their way to Harney Lake.

The district school will close in a couple of weeks, after a long and successful term. B. Childers, principal.

Wm. McDowel has returned from Canyon City, where he took his family to spend the summer, and intends joining them this fall.

W. S. Wilson, one of our leading prospectors, will start to Portland soon for the purpose of organizing a company to work the quartz near this place.

W. H. Heisler and family will start next week to Washington Territory, to be gone a couple of months, to visit an absent daughter; a pleasant trip is anticipated.

Our town is rapidly improving, some good buildings are being built, one of which is Joseph Roemer's large wagon and blacksmith shop, which will soon be completed.

Mr. John Luckey and family started by way of McKenzie road on a visit to Lane county; will also remain a while at the Belknap Mineral Springs in hopes of regaining Mr. Luckey's health.

A portion of the machinery for the Camp creek silver deposit, known as the silver wells, passed through here last Wednesday, and the remainder is on the road, and will be put to work soon under the management of H. Higly, of Portland.

THE PIONEERS OF OREGON.

SALEM, June 16

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

On the 15th of June, 31 years ago, Oregon ceased to be a disputed territory and became part and parcel of the American Union, and during the past two days the old pioneers who came to this coast before and since that date have been mingling together in their annual reunion, and recounting the pleasures and the hardships incident to pioneer life and travel, and cementing old friendships, which are to fade away only with the lives which they have in a measure bound together for these long years. Yesterday and to-day the State Fair grounds have witnessed scenes and pleasures which only those who have experienced the delights of a six or eight months journey across the plains know how most thoroughly to appreciate. The threatening dangers from savages and hunger and disease now remain only as a vision stamped upon the memory, and the camp fires that were last night lighted about the old Fair grounds had lighter hearts about them than had those old fires that used to mark out the great transcontinental trail to the then unknown West. How little did they then know of the beauties of this rarest land of promise or look forward to the annual recurrence of these social reunions. Their days of tribulation have now happily ended and they now see the glad fruition of all their hopes realized in their own prosperity and that of the happy communities in which they mingle. The reunion of the present year opened yesterday at 10 o'clock with an attendance of about 3,000. The Association was called to order by the President, Hon. John Minto, and the exercises were introduced with a prayer by Rev. J. S. Griffin, of Washington county, after which the President delivered a short but very appropriate opening address. The annual address was delivered by Hon. Elwood Evans, of Olympia, W. T., and was an eloquent and finished production, occupying an hour and a quarter in its delivery. No synopsis, such as would be allowed in the brief limits of this letter, could give an adequate idea of its excellence. After the address a poem, written for the occasion, was read by Hon. Rufus Mallory. The afternoon exercises opened with a few very appropriate remarks by Hon. Stephen Staats, in which he recounted many interesting reminiscences of the early days of Oregon. He was followed in the same strain by Mrs. Duniway, Mrs. John Minto, Dr. McKay and Rev. J. L. Parrish. The exercises of the day concluded with the evening lighting of the camp fires and the inevitable "tripping of the light fantastic toe," without which no such occasion can be complete. Around the camp fires occurred some of the most interesting scenes of the whole day's programme, and the merry dancers, who numbered from 40 to 50 sets, "made the whole night of it," and in this way showed the most emphatic appreciation of the way in which the whole affair was managed. It is thought that the cash receipts of the society will fully meet all expenses which have hitherto occurred.

The closing exercises of the association took place this morning. The crowd had sadly decreased in numbers, but there was still considerable enthusiasm which was given vent to in a number of very entertaining speeches. At 9 o'clock the association proceeded to the election of officers with the following result: President, Wm. J. Herren, of Marion county; Vice President, Gen. Joel Palmer, of Yamhill; Recording Secretary, J. Henry Brown, of Marion; Cor. Secretary, Willard H. Rees, of Marion; Treasurer, John M. Bacon, of Clackamas; Directors, Jos. Watt, of Yamhill; R. C. Geer, of Marion, and Thos. Monteith, of Linn. A resolution was passed requesting Dr. W. C. McKay to furnish a brief history of early times in Oregon, to be published in the annals of the association. The poem, written for the occasion by Sam'l L. Simpson, was received too late for delivery, but is said to be one of this well known poet's best productions. The various exercises of the day closed with speeches by Gen. Palmer, Gen. John F. Miller, Dr. McKay, Stephen Staats and others in which they recounted many very interesting experiences of earlier days. With this ended the Pioneer Reunion of 1877. A few stragglers continued to hang about the grounds until late this afternoon, but their dejected air and lonesome and melancholy appearance generally, indicated that the glory of the occasion had departed, and that all its attractions existed only as a part of history.

Dalles Mountaineer: The wool crop this season is turning out exceedingly well, and we are told that the roads between Canyon City and this place is lined with teams loaded with this precious product. The price is fair, ranging from 18 to 20 cents, and for extra fine as high as 23 cents has been realized.

Bank of Germany.

BERLIN, June 16.—The Imperial Bank of Germany to-day reduced discount rate for bills to four per cent., and interest rate on advances to 5 per cent.

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 18, 1877.

THE ELECTION TO-DAY.

To-day there will be a good deal of voting irrespective of party. Perhaps not half the votes thrown will be straight party tickets. Great variety of considerations will have weight with different individuals in making up their ballots. Both candidates for the leading office are sufficiently known to citizens of Portland. If personal ability and moral character be allowed due weight, Mr. Newbury will be elected over Mr. Davis. There will be a good deal of spirit in the contest for the police commissioner. It will not be a contest on party lines, and many Democrats may be expected to vote for Mr. Riley and Republicans for Mr. Sitton. Both candidates are good citizens and men of honorable character. The real question which will decide the choice of many voters between them is whether Chief Lappeus shall be continued in his present position or not. On this question there will be division without regard to party considerations. For treasurer there are Mr. Woodward and Mr. Bachman. Here again party lines will be a good deal disregarded. Than Mr. Woodward there is no more estimable citizen, and those who vote for him may feel sure that he is worthy of the trust. His competitor has served two terms already, with general acceptability. For assessor the choice is between Chas. Schramm and R. H. Love. The former has experience in the business and will do the work well, but truth requires the statement that his personal habits and conduct are not always what they should be. In an election like the present it is possible for every voter to scrutinize the private conduct and personal character of candidates, and it is proper to do so. On the other hand it is not probable that Mr. Love's qualifications for making a satisfactory assessment are equal to those of Mr. Schramm, whose long experience and approved judgment would be valuable for the duties of the position. For the Common Council the Republican nominations are not as strong as they ought to be. All parties, however, continually experience a difficulty in obtaining candidates for these positions who possess the peculiar tact and knowledge requisite for the transaction of the city's business to the best advantage. It is alleged by partisans on either side that jobs of various kinds are intended by their opponents, but charges like these are little heeded and may be taken generally as unfounded. Every citizen, we may suppose, is competent to decide for himself how his ballot shall be cast. It is the true province of a newspaper to speak with candor and impartiality on such an occasion, and after presenting all the information it may possess to leave readers to their own judgment. It was carried at a public meeting the other night, and may now be taken as the established law of elections in Portland—at least for this occasion—that every man has a right to vote as he pleases. In accord with the position the OREGONIAN announced before any nominations were made, its duty is now performed.

THE SMALL WARFARE OF PARTISANSHIP.

And now the usual assertions are in order that each ticket is the better one. By the avowed partisans of each the claim would be made, even if the other were infinitely better by comparison. There is plentiful lack of moderation and good sense. Something more than even the usual amount of extravagant speech is being uttered. An attempt is made to magnify the election into a mighty event. Partisans could not contend with more heat or more apparent earnestness if the fate of the country depended on this annual municipal election. All their stock of great words and bitter epithets comes into use. Misrepresentation makes its strongest efforts. Men who are universally known to be good citizens are defamed without provocation and without stint. All the weapons in the armory of slang and in the invective of rowdyism fly to and fro. With sensible people who are greatly in the majority, though these swashbucklers manifestly don't think so, these things have no weight whatever. Can it be supposed that the methods which the petty organs of partisanship employ against the candidates whom they oppose are in any way necessary, or contribute in the least to results desired? All the candidates are sufficiently well known. Against Mr. Newbury it is urged that he is not an old resident of the city. This would be a good objection if it were proper to elect to the mayoralty the man who has lived longest in the city, without regard to other qualifications. Mr. Newbury has lived here four years, and for a considerably longer time has been a citizen of Oregon. Such a plea in opposition is really contemptible. It is never urged by men of any breadth, but is the offspring of an instinct of provincialism and of a poverty of understanding. So poor an objection deserves an answer only in kind; hence it would not be improper to say that in the present case it comes from some who have not themselves a year's residence in the city. If the objection had any force at all it would break heads both ways.

Wretched puns on names are also in order, and charges and counter-charges against opposing candidates. An organ thinks it is making a great point by playing on one candidate's name, and by making insinuations against the private character of another. All this is extremely small business. It is very proper to inquire into private character to establish a candidate's worthiness, but it is cowardly to use innuendo as a means of conveying charges against an opponent. If one knows a valid reason why a man is not fit to be voted for, there is manliness in stating it plainly. The persons named for city treasurer are both brokers and well known men. It is an honorable business, and no one charges that they have not pursued it honorably. But here are orators on both sides, with hot words accusing these candidates respectively of being "brokers," as if the term implied reproach or infamy. They call this carrying on their canvass. Very frequently the grossest charges are wantonly preferred, and some of them are flying about in certain prints. It is a license which can have no justification.

It is quite in place here, and now, to appeal to a sense of propriety and justice in these matters. A man is not infamous simply because he has become a candidate. Often men are very reluctant to come before the public for official positions, and yield only on entreaty. Beyond doubt this is the case with many of those on both tickets to-day. Yet they are receiving abuse as if they were plotting against the good name and the revenues of the city, and were seeking opportunity to become public robbers. Surely there ought to be an end of this. It debases public sentiment and degrades the public press. It teaches the people to expect dishonesty in their servants, and does much to create the very evils it professes to deplore.

Southern Oregon has a Pioneer Society. Its annual meeting was held at Jacksonville on the 8th inst. L. J. C. Duncan was elected President, Thos. Smith and Kasper Kubb Vice Presidents, and C. S. Hayden Secretary.

THE RECORD QUOTED.

It has often been remarked as singular that men who strictly adhere to truth in other things, fall habitually and willfully into misrepresentation, whenever they have on hand a matter which relates to partisan interests. Here is the Standard saying:

> Newbury is a good clever little man, and was last year brought out by the custom house crowd for the legislature, but the OREGONIAN, then under control of different and abler hands, demanded that he and Le F. A. Shaw should step down and out before the ticket could get the OREGONIAN'S support.

Just to set this matter right we reprint the following from the editorial columns of the OREGONIAN of May 22, 1876:

> We are sorry to have to announce that Mr. W. S. Newbury declines to stand as a candidate for the legislature. The convention nominated him in his absence and without previous consultation with him, and his nomination was received by the people as one of the best made by the convention. It will generally be regretted that the demands of Mr. Newbury's business do not permit him to give the necessary time and attention to the service of the public as a legislator.

Last year the OREGONIAN thought Mr. Newbury fit to be State Senator. It now thinks him fit to be Mayor. He is not Mr. Mitchell's man nor anybody's man.

THE WAR.

Thackeray in one of his sketches relates how Marshal Soult, according to his dispatches to the Emperor, was continually beating the English in the Peninsular war, but somehow found it convenient to fall back after every fight, till, at the end of a couple of years the honest Marshal found himself over on the French side of the Pyrenees almost without an army, and Wellington sharply after him.

Something like this is the strategy of Mukhtar Pasha, in command of the Turkish forces in Asia. He is continually telegraphing of victories won, but on every occasion information comes that he has fallen back. Yet he does well, no doubt, with the military resources at his disposal. His army is vastly inferior in numbers to the Russians and is insufficiently provided. The Russians continue to press with energy, allowing no respite to their enemies. Almost continual fighting is reported.

In certain quarters it seems to be thought that because a good many persons whose political principles are Republican assert their determination not to be bound by nominations for local offices made in the name of their party, they therefore must accept Democratic partisan nominations and vote Democratic tickets. But if it be distasteful to a large class of Republicans to see a party test made on such occasions, and if they recognize no obligation to vote a Republican ticket merely because it is called such, quite as little, or even less, do they see any reason for voting purely partisan Democratic nominations. No Republican wants to vote a Democratic ticket when it is put forth in such a shape as that its success will be claimed as an approval of the political ideas of that party. On this occasion there is an attempt to call it a people's ticket, but this is rather thin when we remember that it is a product of Democratic machinery throughout, and contains the names of Democrats from top to bottom.

It is hardly probable that the Indian outbreak reported beyond Snake river is anything more than a wicked freak of a few vagabond savages, drunk, perhaps, or seeking revenge for some slight injury, real or supposed. By those who have most accurate information as to the number and whereabouts of the various small and roving bands, it is not deemed possible that any very serious outbreak can occur. No alarm therefore need be felt. The military authorities are acting with all possible celerity and dispatch.

An enormous mass of Eastern and California newspapers, so old as to be quite valueless came again by steamer and were delivered here on Sunday. Managed thus the mails are not a convenience, but a continued annoyance. Only one voice has as yet been heard in favor of this arrangement, and that voice is a feeble one uttered by a Sunday paper published here. It has a patent inside and a borrowed outside, and can get on just as well without mails, telegraph, or any other facilities which a newspaper requires.

When the Roseburg Independent says that "the present editor of the OREGONIAN writes articles in favor of the abolishment of the custom house at Portland," of course it means to say an untruthful thing. So wide a departure from truth could not be the fruit of a mistake, which is always pardonable. It could only be the result of an intention to say the thing which is not.

According to the Standard the election of Mr. Sitton will "cure all defects in the management of the police force that may be complained of." This seems an unkind reflection on Mr. Norris, the retiring commissioner, and also on Chief Lappeus. For how could Mr. Sitton "cure the defects" spoken of unless he should consent to the appointment of another chief?

Senator Morton, says the Cincinnati Gazette, has embodied his ideas of a new electoral system into a lecture which he proposes to deliver next fall and winter. In his address at Indianapolis, recently, he made the statement that it is in the power of forty-six Representatives in Congress to elect a President of the United States.

The effect of the war in Europe has been favorable to American securities. The London Economist of the 19th says United States government bonds have advanced in consequence of investments being driven away from other quarters.

Citizens of Yamhill county will celebrate the Fourth of July at St. Jo., and will invite Senator Morton to deliver the oration.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR EYES!

DR. M. S. SASSARETH.

THIS VERY DISTINGUISHED FRENCH OCULIST, (of over 25 years experience), arrived here on the steamer City of Chester, and is now stopping at Room No 1, St. Charles Hotel, where he will remain until the 21st of June. His office hours are from 1 to 5 P. M. Consultation free.

One of the leading papers of Indiana says of Dr. Sassareth: "He is without doubt a very scientific man, who has thoroughly studied the eye, and fully understands all the diseases and defects to which it is subject. He treats these, removes all obstructions, and performs the most difficult operations when necessary; but the best remedy he furnishes for the defective eyesight is the most perfect glasses we ever saw. Looking through a pair of his glasses is like having a pair of new eyes. The pleasure and satisfaction can only be realized by actual trial. These glasses are made upon the most scientific principle, and therefore are not only just what is needed but so perfect that the person using them is scarcely aware that any glasses at all are before his eyes. Dr. S has treated most successfully a number of our leading citizens, and we notice that he is patronized by the best informed people wherever he goes."

Dr. Glick, an eminent physician, writes as follows to Dr. Sassareth: "Having enjoyed the use of your eye glasses, as adapted to my eyes by you in person, I feel that I would be derelict in my duty to those similarly afflicted as I am, if I did not make this acknowledgement of gratitude to you. My glasses, both for reading and walking, give me entire satisfaction."

Says the Delphi (Indiana) Journal: "We are exceedingly cautious in recommending travelling physicians, yet when we find one whose talents and skill are endorsed by the best medical men in the State, we feel that we run no risk in presenting him in the most favorable light. We have just met one whom we can certainly endorse. We allude to Dr. Sassareth, an eminent French Oculist, who is very highly recommended by Dr. Fitch of Logansport, Drs. Glick, O'Farrell and other physicians of Lafayette, and scores of the best citizens of both places."

The South Bend Register speaks thus of the great skill of Dr. Sassareth: "He is a very scientific oculist and thoroughly understands the delicate organism of the eye. * * * He has treated with the most gratifying results a number of our leading citizens, including ex Vice President Colfax."

A. P. Palmer, a prominent member of the City Bank of Albany, New York, says: "I take great pleasure in referring to the time about five years ago, when you furnished me with the first eye glasses I ever had occasion to use, and to bear testimony to the correctness of your judgment in the selection of those so admirably adapted to my sight."

DR. SASSARETH expects to remain only about a fortnight in Portland. His time is limited, and those who wish to consult him should call early. He can be seen every day between 1 and 5 o'clock P. M.

OFFICE OF INSURANCE COMMISSIONER, San Francisco, Feb. 5, 1877.

I, J. W. Foard, hereby certify that I am Insurance Commissioner of the State of California, and have supervision of Insurance business in the State and as such Commissioner, further certify that the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California is a corporation properly organized under the laws of this State, and being in a solvent condition and possessed of a paid up capital of One Hundred Thousand Dollars, equal to Gold Coin of the United States, is authorized to do business in the State. And I further certify, that, upon a personal examination of the books and papers of the said company at the close of the year eighteen hundred and seventy-six, its statement as of this date, and now on file in this office, was shown to be correct and true, the company being possessed of good, valid assets amounting to one million two hundred and sixty-four thousand eight hundred and thirty-six dollars and eighty six cents* ($1,264,836 86), and having outstanding liabilities, as defined by the laws of the State, amounting to nine hundred and sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars and five cents ($916,750 05), exclusive of the Capital Stock.

[L.S.] As witness my hand and official seal, the day and year first above written.

J. W. FOARD,
Insurance Commissioner.

[Extract from Report of A. D. SMITH, ex-Deputy Insurance Commissioner.]

J. G. EDWARDS, Publisher Coast Review,

Dear Sir:—In pursuance of your request I have made an examination of the Assets and Liabilities of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California, as they existed on the 31st day of December, 1876, as shown by the books and papers of the Company, and as a result of such examination I beg to report as follows:

* * * * * * * *

Total Assets, Gold		$1,281,847 59
Re-insurance Reserve, American Experience, 1½ per ct.	$886,031 49
Claims for Death Losses	28,700 00
Due on Account Salaries and Rents	2,019 02
Total Liabilities, Gold		916,750 51
Net surplus to Policy-holders, Gold		$365,097 08
Company's paid-up Capital	$100,000 00

The above is, I believe, a true and fair statement of the Company's condition Dec. 31, 1876.

In conclusion, I beg to say that I found the Company's business thoroughly systematized—its books and papers in excellent condition and neatly kept. Every facility was extended to me by all the officers and employees of the Company to enable me to make my examination thorough. Books, papers, and accounts were freely exhibited to me. There was no attempt to hold back or conceal anything. I am satisfied the Company courts the most rigid scrutiny. For courteous treatment, I beg to return thanks to the officers and attaches of the Company.

Respectfully submitted, A. D. SMITH.

San Francisco, February 5, 1877.

*Commissioner Foard excludes items of assets not admitted under the laws of California, amounting to $17,010 73.

NEW MARKET THEATER —Manager Bert arrived here yesterday morning on the steamer accompanied by the members of his excellent company. This evening a short dramatic season will be inaugurated at New Market theater All the necessary scenery has been brought from San Francisco. As it is from the brush of that prince of artists, Voegtlin, something very fine may be anticipated in the scenic line The opening piece will be the great sensational play, "Tour of the World in 80 Days," which, under the same management had such an unprecedented run in San Francisco. This company come to us bearing the unqualified endorsement of the press and public The theatrical season promises to be very successful financially and in respect to histrionic merit. A large number of reserved seats has already been sold and the prospects of a crowded house are extremely flattering

MORE INDIAN TROUBLES.

REPORTED UPRISING OF INDIANS NEAR MOUNT IDAHO—ONE MAN MURDERED AND HIS WIFE WOUNDED—TROOPS ON THE WAY TO THE SCENE

Last Saturday Capt J C Ainsworth President of the Oregon Steam Navigation, Co received the following telegram

WALLULA June 16th 1 A M

CAPT AINSWORTH—Indians murdering settlers about Mount Idaho Steamer necessary for safety of life to convey troops from Wallula to morrow Please give necessary instructions immediately

Signed M C WILKINSON
Aide de Camp to O O Howard
Gen'l Commanding Dep't

Mr S G Reed in compliance with this urgent request ordered the O S N Company's steamer Almota to proceed without delay from Wallula to Lewiston with troops, and on arriving there to await orders from Gen Howard who is now in that region

Gen Howard left this city several weeks ago for the express purpose of hunting up the little scattered and roving bands of Indians on both sides of the Columbia river and to compel them to go on to the reservations he might designate So far as is known that officer has met with very encouraging success in accomplishing his purpose and carrying into effect the wishes of the general government with respect to these Indians Last Wednesday he left Wallula for the Spokane country via Lewiston, Idaho Territory Everything was quiet along the line at that time and no indications of a disturbance The several tribes of Nez Perces which had been notified were peaceably disposed so far as actions and professions of friendship were concerned, and they were complying with Gen Howard's instructions and going to their respective reservations

Later in the day a dispatch was received from Walla Walla to the effect that a man named Ben Norton living on Cottonwood Creek near Camas Swale had been murdered by the Indians, and that his wife had been maltreated—having both of her legs broken A report had also been received at Fort Lapwai that there was a general uprising of the Indians near Mount Idaho, and they were massacring the settlers in that region. The messenger who brought the news to Fort Lapwai had been entrapped by the Indians and wounded Great excitement prevails in that part of the country over these startling reports Norton who is reported to have been murdered was formerly employed by Hill Beachy of Lewiston The difficulty is supposed to have arisen about trading horses

On receipt of the startling intelligence the troops stationed at Lapwai started post haste for the scene of trouble, leaving the garrison in an unprotected condition Capt Wilkinson, on hearing the reports, started for Walla Walla with all speed for more troops All the available troops at that post were sent by rail to Wallula Saturday afternoon, where they embarked on the Almota That steamer left Wallula yesterday morning at 2 o'clock having on board 75 men and 24 horses, bound for Lewiston

Adjt Gen H Clay Wood of this city received a telegram at half past two o clock Saturday afternoon stating substantially the nature of the trouble, and ordering him to forward immediately all the available troops to the scene of difficulty Mrs Howard also received a dispatch from her husband stating that there was no occasion for alarm.

Mount Idaho is situated on Three Mile creek about 60 miles southeast of Lewiston Norton's place is 18 miles this side of Mount Idaho and 48 miles from Lewiston on the Mount Idaho and Lewiston road His nearest neighbors live about 10 miles distant

From passengers arriving here from Idaho Territory late Saturday evening, we learn that up to the time they left Lewiston—Thursday noon, 14th inst —to all appearance the Indians of all that upper country are without exception, disposed to peace

As usual at this season of each year there is a general moving of Indian tribes and families from the Umatilla, Columbia, Palouse and Snake rivers towards the Spokane falls and Camus Prairie—their object, as usual, to afford the squaws an opportunity to dig the camus roots, and to the boss Indians (the bone, sinew and hope of the tribes) an opportunity to lie alternately on the grass, play cards and run horses

In all these migrations and momentous conventions the whole tribe goes, including patriarchs and matrons of a hundred years, down to young redskins eight inches long and four days old. At Colfax our informant met this migratory flood of humanity, and, in going through their numerous camps, only discovered one old style horse pisto in the hands of a white youth, who had just wrested the same from a stalwart Indian that had stolen the same from the boy but the day before. These, it would seem, are the appearances and preparations for war, from which it can be conjectured that an uprising of the Indians against the whites of that country is at all probable, and from which it is more probable that in case Ben Norton has been killed, it has resulted from a war gotten up and prosecuted by him on his own account and with some lone Indian inimical to him only

TAKE CARE OF YOUR EYES

What is the most precious jewel to the average human, who has been furnished with a good pair of optics, and has availed himself of the same to carry him safely through this "vale of tears" It is his eyesight. How many suffer on through life with defective vision, simply because the opportunity has not been afforded him to consult a man who has devoted himself to that particular branch of study. That excuse, however, can no longer be indulged in for there is in this city an optician, Dr M. S Sasserath, of New York, who has given his life to this study He comes with the highest recommendations from abroad, and has similar ones from California, ascribing to him the perfect understanding of the subject As an oculist, Dr Sasserath is perfect

The eye, the most delicate portion of the human organism, like other portions of the system is subject to vicissitudes Many people are troubled with defective eyesight and resort to various means for relief. When the eyes are affected in any way the greatest care should be taken of them, and none but those of recognized ability should be consulted in regard to them We have in our midst to day a gentleman of culture and refinement who has made a life study of optics He is acquainted with all the changes and conditions of the eyes and thoroughly competent to treat them We allude to Dr. Sasserath of New York. The doctor is well known in this vicinity, as in all other portions of the country, and has testimonials from many of the most prominent physicians and surgeons in this country and in Europe. A visit will soon convince the most skeptical of the statements here made The writer of this article has used Dr Sasserath's glasses and knows whereof he speaks, and has no hesitation in saying that they are the best he has ever met with. Many of our prominent citizens have been fitted with these glasses, which are made on scientific principles, and in no case have they been dissatisfied He first examines the eye carefully, and then hands you a pair of glasses perfectly adapted for your use, and all this in less than five minutes His parlors are at No 1 St Charles Hotel where he can be found until Tuesday.

Fine fashionable dress and business suits at bedrock prices, at Kohn's clothing palace corner of First and Morrison streets.

The largest assortment of ladies linen suits in the city can be found at J Harris & Son's Emporium of Fashion

The Medical Institute of Dr W L Adams corner of First and Salmon streets will be removed to Hood River in a few months Till then chronic diseases of men and women will be treated in Portland as usual An accomplished lady assistant to give baths to ladies and assist in their treatment always in the office

A WORD TO DEMOCRATS

PORTLAND June 16 1877

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Will you allow me to say one word to the Democrats of Portland? Democrats, the hour has come For twenty years the party in this county has been afflicted with a pair of twin baby barnacles, who have been eternally kicking up a fuss unless their mouths were all the time at the public teat, who never could be weaned and who have been the biggest gormandizers the world ever saw, except Boss Tweed of New York and Boss Sheppard, of Washington. We have weaned one of the twins—Absalom—and buried him, and now it is our duty to wean his dearly beloved brother James and bury him, and then after putting up tomb stones to their memory freed from a great incubus, the Democracy of Multnomah can march to victory and Reform But to do this there must be work The Independent Reformers of Portland (God bless their dear innocent unsophisticated and reforming hearts), are going for Reform by voting the Lapp ticket (on the principle that a fellow can wash himself clean by jumping in a mud hole), and to get rid of our last remaining barnacle there must be good, thorough, earnest work Let it be done Let the motto on Monday be "R R Riley and Democratic Reform" And let the Democrats win, by electing Riley UNTERRIFIED

A Medicine of Many Uses.

A medicine which remedies dyspepsia liver complaint constipation, debility, intermittent and remittent fevers, urinary and uterine troubles, depurates the blood counteracts a tendency to rheumatism and gout, and relieves nervousness, may be truly said to have many uses Such an article is Hostetter's Bitters, one of the most reliable alteratives of a disorderly to a well ordered state of the system ever prepared or sold. It has been over a quarter of a century before the public, is indorsed by many eminent professors of the healing art, and its merits have received repeated recognitions in the columns of leading American and foreign journals It is highly esteemed in every part of this country and is extensively used in South America, Mexico the British possessions and the West Indies If its increase in public favor in the past is to be regarded as a reliable criterion of its gain in popularity in coming years, it has indeed a splendid future before it

A Good Day for Homicides.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—This afternoon at 2:30 a shooting scrape occurred at 116 and 118 Waverly Place. F. C. Smith, living with a woman named Mary Thompson, became jealous and shot her. The bullet entered her chin and lodged in her cheek. Smith then shot himself in the head, the bullet entering above the left ear. The deed was premeditated, as shown by a letter which Smith showed to the arresting officers, in which he states that he was prompted to the act by the unfaithfulness of the woman with whom he was living. He said he was foolish to only wound her and kill himself, but hoped to die, and knew he should die. He will not live long in all probability. The woman's wound is not serious.

About 2:15 P. M. to day a Chinaman was shot on an alley leading off Waverly Place. The bullet entered his breast, and from powder marks it was evident the assailant was at close quarters with the victim. The body was taken to the morgue. The murderer has not been arrested, but the police are on his track, and are likely to get him soon.

While the body of the Chinaman was being taken into the morgue the coroner was notified of a murder at South San Francisco, particulars of which have not yet been obtained.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—The name of the man killed at South San Francisco is John Oates, killed by Frank Killeen, cook at the Caisca Hotel, who stabbed him with a butcher knife. Killeen claims that Oates was the aggressor. Deceased had been under the influence of liquor several days. Killeen was arrested.

Mining Tax Suits.

VIRGINIA, June 15.—It is now definitely settled that in the suits of the city vs Mining Companies, for bullion tax due for the quarter ending March 31st, the only point made will be that the clause under which the companies claim exemption is unconstitutional. A separate investigation will be made to endeavor to find out who inserted the fraudulent clause which was not in the charter when it passed the legislature.

Exploder Exploded.

This afternoon the exploder house at the entrance of the Sutro tunnel was blown to pieces. At a quarter to two o'clock a loud explosion was heard succeeded by a number of smaller ones. At the same instant fragments of the exploder house, a small wooden structure, were seen flying through the air. The form of a man was seen crawling from the burning wreck which proved to be Liddicott, the blaster, who had gone into the house after exploders, immediately after which the explosion was heard. Joseph Banks gallantly rushed up to the building after the explosion had taken place to rescue the terribly injured man. His body is lacerated by flying pieces of copper, and it is feared that one if not both of his eyes are destroyed. How the explosion took place it is impossible to tell as yet. Every precaution had been taken to prevent such an accident. The total number of explodors which went off is estimated at 2,500. Work on the tunnel will be delayed.

VIRGINIA, June 16.—Liddecount, the blaster, who was blown up at Sutro yesterday, died this morning. It is pretty certain he caused the explosion by handling cartridges without the rubber gloves worn by workmen when in the exploder house.

Plenty of good land to be taken up at Alsea bay. All garden vegetables grow to perfection. Cereals ripen in good season. Excellent place for fruit and fish canning establishments.

The wild boar of Siuslaw was a very formidable hog. The other day when bayed by dogs he struck at one of them with his tusk (he had one left) and drove it through a three inch oak grub and left more than five inches of tusk sticking in the grub.

The catalogue of Christian College, Monmouth, Polk county, shows a total of forty-four students in the collegiate and thirty-six in the preparatory department. Courses of study are comprehensive and thorough, and the institution is on a sound basis.

Roseburg papers announce that Joseph Knott, of Portland, has sold the Excelsior quartz mine, in Bohemia district, for the sum of $30,000. The sale includes the mill as well as the mine, and the purchasers are a company of Eastern capitalists who propose to begin work on the mine upon an elaborate scale. The Excelsior mine is perhaps the richest known in Douglas county.

Edward F. Vezie, who has a stock ranch on Willow creek, Wasco county, where his family is, left home in his two horse wagon some days ago on business. Near John Day river he left the wagon and one horse standing in the road, and wandered away nearly 100 miles before he was found. When discovered he was on foot, insane and nearly starved. Seventy-five men were on the hunt for him.

Thomas Heffner, a desperado from Nevada, was arrested at Prineville on the 30th of May, but escaped from custody by persuading the deputy sheriff he was not the man. After he was released he immediately procured his arms—two revolvers and a double-barreled shot gun—and then acknowledged that he was Heffner, the Nevada highwayman and murderer, and dared any one to arrest him, saying that he had killed five men. He afterwards left for parts unknown, unmolested.

George Gay, in the extreme northeast corner of Polk county, is one of the early pioneers of the State, and is a good specimen of the hardy, hospitable settler of the early day. He left England in 1830 on a whale fishing voyage to the North Pacific. In 1832 was permitted, with a boat's crew, to go ashore on the California coast. He says they all forgot to return to the ship, and he has never seen the captain since. He found his way to this State in 1835, and located near where he now lives.

On Monday, the 11th inst., Mrs. Gilliam departed this life at Mr. D. Grant's residence near Dallas, Polk county. Mrs. Gilliam was born in Tennessee, August 17, 1800, and consequently was in her 77th year. She was the widow of General Cornelius Gilliam, who was accidentally shot and killed March 24, 1848, while en route to Territorial headquarters from the seat of the Cayuse war in that year. They came to Oregon in 1844 with the second immigration that ever came across the plains. Mrs. Gilliam was left a widow with quite a large family which she raised herself.

HOP GROWERS' ASSOCIATION.

EUGENE CITY, June 11, 1877.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Pursuant to agreement, the members attending the Hop Growers' Convention, which convened in this city on May 23d, met again at the courthouse in this place on Friday, June 8th. The meeting being called to order, the following preamble was read and adopted:

As it is an old and established fact that co-operative exertion is generally met with success, and that division is ruinous to any enterprise, and having had within the last year opportunities of more thoroughly realizing these facts, we, as hop growers of Lane county, Oregon, do hereby band ourselves together, forming this society, which shall be known as the Lane County Hop Growers' Association, the object of which shall be to promote the general and mutual interest of those engaged in raising, curing, putting in proper shape and condition for market that product known in commerce under the name of hops.

The committee on permanent organization and by-laws gave in their report, which was accepted and adopted. It was decided to hold election of officers on the first Saturday of June every year. The officers elected for the ensuing year are: President, A. A. Smith; vice presidents, John Day, T. D. Edwards, R. Scott; secretary, J. H. Brown; treasurer and corresponding secretary, A. W. Patterson.

The association will subscribe for the Brewer's Guardian, of London, England, and all other journals that give reliable hop reports.

It is decided to have uniform bales for hops, 4 feet long, 18 inches wide and 2 feet deep. The price for picking this year is established at 37½ cents per box; boxes same size as used heretofore—length 3 feet, depth 2 feet, width 18 inches.

This association is strong in membership, and have funds subscribed and paid in, so as to enable it to accomplish its purpose.

We would gladly receive communications from hop growers' associations, hop growers, dealers in hops, or commission agencies. We would also urge all hop growers in Lane county to co-operate with us and assist in the advancement of this great industry.

A. A. SMITH, President.

J. H. BROWN, Secretary.

Chicago Markets.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

CHICAGO, June 16.—On 'change this week prices have gone gradually and not slowly down, with scarcely an exception in any article or day. Crops are reported as in good condition from all of this country. The good growing weather and general depreciation of property may be some causes for the decline, while the fact that little wheat is coming in a goodly quantity moving, is the only reason outside the Eastern war that can be given why prices do not recede further. The markets have been unusually dull with no new feature. Wheat sold at $1 47@1 55. The greatest variation in one day was 4 cents. Corn sold from 41¼ to 46⅝, the greatest daily variation being ⅜ cents.

Boston Wool Market.

BOSTON, June 16.—Wool firm; demand active; market bare of washed fleeces, and sales in consequence has been limited. New choice quoted at 41c; old Pennsylvania, 42½c; old Michigan and New York, 39c; combing and delaine in demand; sales of 181,000 pounds, including 130,000 pounds of new Kentucky combing at 38@41c; the balance were small lots of washed delaine and combing at 47@50c, and unwashed at 38@40c, including choice fat sheep. Combing pulled wool continues in demand; market steady and firm; sales of the week, 261,000 pounds, at 30@44c for super, 37½@41 for X, 44@45c for combing pulled. California wool continued in demand; sales of 818,600 pounds of spring at 22@36c, including choice lots at 32@36c, and 19,850 pounds of fall at 12@25c—mostly from 15@17c.

New York Freights and Markets.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The usual quietness which prevails at the close of the week was enhanced to day by showery weather, and, as a consequence, nothing is doing at the wharves of Pacific coast bound vessels. Steamer freights dull, next departure the 30th inst. Railroad freights also quiet to-day; very little doing at Boston. Clipper freights very quiet, as also railroad freights. Merchandise markets have a quiet appearance. Flour dull and lower to sell. Wheat dull and depressed, 2@3c lower to sell. Barley, no demand, no established prices; California nominal, 55c. Pork dull and lower, $13 90. Hides quiet and firmer, sales, $4 00 California 21 gold, thirty days. Groceries, except coffee, very dull. Wool firm; spring fairly active, but fall quiet. Boston market very active at full prices. California continues in demand at better prices; sales being larger, comprising 818,000 pounds spring, 22@36; 198,600 pounds fall, 12@25.

WONDERFUL SUCCESS OF

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN

In the Treatment of Chronic Disease.

Positive Proof of his Wonderful Skill.

Testimony that Cannot be Contradicted.

Reliable Witnesses Testifying What he has Done for Them.

Perfect Cures where all other Treatment had Failed.

Crowds Coming from all Parts of the Country to Visit Him.

The Following Certificates Speak for Themselves:

TO DR. PAUL M. BRENAN—

For the past year and a half I have been suffering from Nervous and General Debility, Kidney Disease, Loss of Flesh and Strength, dizziness in the head and a constant pain through the back and loins. I became so debilitated and broken down that I was unfitted for business. I have been to Victoria and all over the coast under medical treatment for the past nine months, without receiving any benefit whatever, and had almost given up hopes of ever recovering, until I came under your treatment, about seven weeks ago. From the very first, your treatment seemed to work like a charm, and I constantly improved from the beginning. I have gained 14 pounds of flesh, and I am now, thanks to your skillful treatment, perfectly well, and am able to return to my business on the Snohomish. JAMES KING.

Seattle, March 31, 1877.

To the People: I have been troubled with chronic Nasal Catarrh for years, the disease being so aggravated that there was constantly an effusion of matter passing down into my throat behind the pallate and down through my nostrils.

My nose became depressed between the eyes and swollen on each side. I was told by physicians that it was a polypus; that some of the blood vessels were involved, and that the removal would endanger my life by hemorrhage. I became so bad that I made up my mind that I must have immediate relief or die.

As a last resort I applied to Dr. Paul M. Brenan, who, after a moment's examination, determined what to do. He said the nasal bone was involved and diseased, and that there would have to be a portion of it removed. He at once removed the bone tumor containing the ulcer; also the diseased portion of bone and pituatory gland and cured the catarrh. I am now perfectly well and as free from disease as ever I was in my life.

THOMAS D. MURPHY.

Seattle, April 5th, 1877.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN—Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in stating for the benefit of those who are afflicted with any chronic disease, that I am now a well man. For the past two years I have been under the medical treatment of different physicians, from which I have received no benefit. I have been suffering with general and nervous debility, a difficulty in my stomach, and at times dizziness and severe headache, almost incapacitating me for work. About three weeks ago I put myself under your care, and I can say with delight that I am cured and feel like myself again, after having partaken of your skillful treatment. To me now, labor seems a pleasure. I say this much, hoping it will be the means of attracting the suffering to you, who can relieve and cure them.

Your's Truly, JOHN BALLARD,
Employed at Colman's Saw Mill, Seattle.

[I will not publish any cures performed by me unless by the full consent of the parties.]

PAUL M. BRENAN.

Dr. Brenan can be consulted, free of charge, at his office at the Clarendon Hotel, from 10 to 12 A. M., and at rooms 6 and 7 in Corbett's Block, corner of Front and Washington streets, Portland, Oregon, from 1 30 to 5, and 7 to 8 P. M.

PRATT'S MINERAL COLZA OIL.

300° FIRE TEST.

Chas. Pratt & Co., New York,

Sole Proprietors and Manufacturers.

To Consumers of High Fire-Test Mineral Oils.

YOUR ATTENTION IS PARTICULARLY INvited to our 300° Fire-Test Oil, called "Pratt's Mineral Colza," which we are now manufacturing expressly for STEAMSHIP, RAILROAD and MILL ILLUMINATION, or for use where an exceedingly high Fire-Test Oil is required. It has already been adopted by many of the Railroads throughout the country, and by most of the coastwise steamers sailing from New York, whose continuance of its use in preference to all similar Oils, is sufficient commendation as to its quality. It will not burn well in the ordinary Petroleum Lamp, it being of too heavy gravity for such use; but in the German Student Lamp and those with double wick burners, we guarantee it to give perfect satisfaction producing a pure flame of great brilliancy. Our facilities for manufacturing are excellent, and equal to any demand, while the price is much lower than that of any oil in the market of the same character and fire test. The U. S. law in regard to the use of these Oils on passenger steamers is very explicit, as follows:

"Any Oil which will stand a Fire Test of Three Hundred (300°) Degrees Fahrenheit, may be carried as freight or used as stores on any steamer carrying passengers."

We beg to offer the following Certificates, which have been handed us from the very best authorities obtainable, in regard to the test of the Mineral Colzoa Oil, and they may be considered perfectly reliable:

Report of Prof. S. Dana Hayes, Massachusetts State Assayer.

[COPY.] BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 10th, 1876.

A sample of burning Oil, marked Mineral Colzoa, manufactured by CHARLES PRATT & Co., of New York City, has been tested by me with the following result: It has a Fire Test of 325° Fahrenheit. It does not ignite under 328° F.

(Signed) S. DANA HAYES,
Massachusetts State Assayer.

Report of Inspector of Petroleum Oil, for State of Massachusetts.

[COPY.] BOSTON, October 4th 1876.

I have tested samples of Mineral Colzoa Oil, from CHARLES PRATT & Co., New York City, and find the igniting point or Fire Test to be 315° Fahrenheit. (Signed) R. F. MEANS, Mass. State Inspector of Petroleum.

Report on Sample of Mineral Colzoa Oil, Tested for U. S. Inspector of Steamers 2d District.

[COPY.] NEW YORK, April 25th, 1876.

Mr. ADDISON LOW, U. S. Sub. Inspector.

DEAR SIR: We have tested the sample of Mineral Colzoa Oil presented by you, and find it stands a Fire Test of 300° Fahrenheit, and we consider it in all respects a very superior Oil.

(Signed) LOCKWOOD, BROS. & HOLLY,
Petroleum Inspectors appointed by N. Y. City Produce Exchange.

To the Trade.

The undersigned beg to call your attention to all of the above, and thus advise you that they will at all times have a full supply of the above mentioned goods on hand, and would be pleased to have your orders.

THE PAPYROGRAPH

IS AN EXTRAORDINARY INVENTION FOR printing copies by the thousands from a single autograph writing or drawing. From one writing by this process a thousand permanent fac similes impressions of circulars, price lists, specifications, examination papers, assessment notices, etc., may be printed in an ordinary copying press, upon any description of paper. Copies may be taken direct from the writing without any of the usual operations of inking, rolling, transferring of typesetting. A proof impress on may be produced within five minutes after a manuscript has been completed and be afterwards multiplied at the rate of five hundred an hour, at an infinitessimal cost.

One Thousand Copies

May be produced from a single sheet of Papyrograph Paper, and a single application of color, at an expense of four cents. It possesses over printing the advantages of an Autograph Letter, besides admitting of Illustrations without the expense of wood cuts. It allows autograph letters to pass through the mail as third class matter. It is invaluable to any business. It can be seen in operation at the office of the agent for Oregon,

E. A. WILLIS,

SAN FRANCISCO TESTIMONIALS.

After due experience, we feel warranted in recommending it. CENTRAL PACIFIC R. R. CO.
T. N. GOODMAN.

We find it invaluable in our business and could hardly do without it. BAKER & HAMILTON.

It greatly facilitates the present methods of doing business. JAMES COEY, Postmaster.

It not only fulfills all its promises, but is working a revolution in the methods and efficiency in our advertising. A. ROMAN & CO.

We take pleasure in certifying to its value in our business. Were its merits understood, it would be in every counting house. SHERMAN & HYDE.

We find it a very great convenience both in the rapidity, number and ease with which fac similes may be produced. W. T. COLEMAN & CO.

We have reduced by its aid half our former printer's bills. It fully realizes our expectations.
